We will not make an unsuitable contract with you

We will not enter into a contract with you if it would be unsuitable for you. A contract will be unsuitable for you if:

- it does not meet your stated requirements and objectives; or
- it is unlikely that you will be able to meet your financial obligations under the contract without suffering substantial hardship.

We will make an assessment

We must make an assessment that the contract is not unsuitable for you before we enter into a contract with you. To do this, we must make reasonable enquiries about your financial situation and your requirements and objectives. We must take reasonable steps to verify your financial situation.

If you ask us to, we will give you a copy of our assessment before we enter into a contract with you. You can also ask us for a copy of our assessment within 7 years of the date the contract is made. We will not charge you a fee to obtain a copy of our assessment.

If your request is made within 2 years, we will provide a copy of our assessment within 7 business days after we receive your request. Otherwise, we will provide a copy of our assessment within 21 business days after we receive your request.

We are not required to provide you a copy of our assessment if we do not enter into a contract with you.

INFORMATION STATEMENT

Things you should know about your proposed credit contract

This statement tells you about some of the rights and obligations of yourself and us, your credit provider. It does not state the terms and conditions of your contract.

If you have any concerns about your contract, contact us and, if you still have concerns, contact our external dispute resolution scheme, or get legal advice.

The contract

1. How can I get details of my proposed credit contract?

We must give you a pre-contractual statement containing certain information about your contract. The pre-contractual statement, and this document, must be given to you before —

- you contract is entered into; or
- you make an offer to enter into the contract,

whichever happens first.

2. How can I get a copy of the final contract?

If the contract document is to be signed by you and returned to us, you must be given a copy to keep. Also, we must give you a copy of the final contract within 14 days after it is made. This rule does not, however, apply if we have previously given you a copy of the contract document to keep.

If you want another copy of your contract, write to us and ask for one. We may charge you a fee. We must give you a copy —

- within 14 days of your written request if the original contract came into existence 1 year or less before your request; or
- otherwise, within 30 days of your written request.

3. Can I terminate the contract?

Yes. You can terminate the contract by writing to us so long as —

- you have not obtained any credit under the contract; or
- a card or other means of obtaining credit given to you by us has not been used to acquire goods or services for which credit is to be provided under the contract.

However, you will still have to pay any fees or charges incurred before you terminated the contract.

4. Can I pay my credit contract out early?

Yes. You will need to pay us the amount required to pay out your credit contract on the day you wish to end your contract.

5. How can I find out the payout figure?

You can write to us at any time and ask for a statement of the pay out figure as at any date you specify. You can also ask for details of how the amount is made up.

We must give you the statement within 7 days after you give your request to us. You may be charged a fee for the statement.

6. Will I pay less interest if I pay out my contract early?

Yes. The interest you can be charged depends on the actual time money is owing. However, you may have to pay an early termination charge (if your contract permits us to charge one) and other fees.

7. Can my contract be changed by my credit provider?

Yes, but only if your contract says so.

8. Will I be told in advance if my credit provider is going to make a change in the contract?

That depends on the type of change. For example —

- you get at least same day notice for a change to an annual percentage rate. That notice may be a written notice to you or a notice published in a newspaper.
- you get 20 days advance written notice for —
 - a change in the way in which interest is calculated; or
 - a change in credit fees and charges; or
 - any other changes by us,

except where the change reduces what you have to pay or the change happens automatically under the contract.

9. Is there anything I can do if I think that my contract is unjust?

Yes. You should first talk to us to see if we can come to some arrangement.

If that is not successful, you may contact our external dispute resolution scheme. External dispute resolution is a free service established to provide you with an independent mechanism to resolve specific complaints. Our external dispute resolution provider is Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) which can be contacted on 1800 931 678 or at info@afca.org.au.

Alternatively, you can go to court. You may wish to get legal advice, for example from your community legal centre or Legal Aid.

You can also contact ASIC, the regulator, for information on 1300 300 630 or through ASIC's website at www.asic.gov.au.

General

10. What do I do if I cannot make a repayment?

Get in touch with us immediately. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement.

You can ask us to change your contract in a number of ways, for example —

- to extend the term of your contract and reduce payments; or
- to extend the term of your contract and delay payments for a set time; or
- to delay payments for a set time.

11. What if my credit provider and I cannot agree on a suitable arrangement?

If we refuse your request to change the repayments, you can ask us to review this decision if you think it is wrong. If we still refuse your request you can complain to the external dispute resolution scheme that we belong to. Further details about this scheme are set out below in question 13.

12. Can my credit provider take action against me?

Yes, if you are in default under your contract. But the law says that you cannot be unduly harassed or threatened for repayments. If you think you are being unduly harassed or threatened, contact our external dispute resolution scheme or ASIC, or get legal advice.

13. Do I have any other rights and obligations?

Yes. The law will give you other rights and obligations. You should also READ YOUR CONTRACT carefully.

IF YOU HAVE ANY COMPLAINTS ABOUT YOUR CREDIT CONTRACT, OR WANT MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT US. YOU MUST ATTEMPT TO RESOLVE YOUR COMPLAINT WITH US BEFORE CONTACTING OUR EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEME. IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT WHICH REMAINS UNRESOLVED AFTER SPEAKING TO US YOU CAN CONTACT OUR EXTERNAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEME OR GET LEGAL ADVICE. Loan Agreement General Terms

This document does not contain all the contract terms or all of the information we are required by law to give you before the contract is formed. Further terms and conditions are in your Loan Agreement Details (Details). These Loan Agreement General Terms and the Details make up the contract (Loan Agreement). They should be read together. The Loan Agreement only becomes binding on us when we have accepted your offer to borrow from us.

The meaning of words in this document that are capitalised is set out in clause 26 of these General Terms (before the Information Statement and the Credit Guide).

1. Parties: The parties to this Loan Agreement are:
 - a. each Customer as shown in the Details (you, the Customer); and
 - b. Harmony Australia Limited (Harmony or we, us or our).
2. Effective date: This Loan Agreement commences on the date on which we accept your offer to borrow the Loan Amount from us.
3. Multiple Customers: When there is more than one Customer who is a party to this Loan Agreement:
 - a. all Customers are jointly liable to us;
 - b. each Customer is individually liable to us;
 - c. each of you give us your consent to disclose your personal information to each other Customer, in accordance with the Privacy Act;
 - d. Harmony can accept instructions from any of you (without reference to the other(s)) in respect of your rights and obligations under this Loan Agreement;
 - e. any of you can agree to amendments to this Loan Agreement on behalf of each other Customer; and
 - f. disclosures and notifications we are required to give you in connection with the Loan Agreement will be provided to each of you.
4. Loan: You authorise us to establish a Loan Account in your name and to debit to it each part of the Loan Amount on the date we lend it to you, and any amount which you must pay under this Loan Agreement on or after the date it becomes due without first notifying you. Harmony agrees to advance the Loan Amount specified in the Details to you for the term specified in the Details, provided:
 - a. we have received all documents and information we require, (including giving us a Direct Debit Authority), in a form that is satisfactory to us;
 - b. you have complied with any other conditions that we have reasonably requested that you satisfy;
 - c. you are not in default under this Loan Agreement (for example you have paid all relevant fees and charges and have not given us any misleading financial or other information);

- d. nothing has happened since your Loan Application which has led or could lead to a worsening in
 - i. your financial circumstances
 - ii. your ability to comply with any of your obligations under this Loan Agreement;and
 - e. the Settlement Date occurs within 14 days of the Disclosure Date.
- 5. Loan payment: On the Settlement Date except to the extent that the Details indicate the Loan amount is to be paid to others, we will pay the Loan Amount to you or as directed by you or your agent.
- 6. Loan term: The term of the Loan Agreement begins on the Settlement Date and continues for the period of time specified in the Details.
- 7. Interest charges: You must pay us interest charges for each day on the Balance Owing on your Loan Account for the end of that day. Interest charges are calculated daily by applying the daily rate to the Balance Owing on your Loan Account. The daily rate is the Annual Percentage Rate divided by 365 (or 366 in a leap year). Interest charges accrue daily from and including the Settlement Date. They are debited to your Loan Account monthly (starting in the month following the month that the Settlement Date falls) and on the last day of the term of the Loan Agreement. Interest charges for each month will be debited on the same day of the relevant month as the Settlement Date, or on the last Business Day of the relevant month if that is earlier or the relevant month has no corresponding day.
- 8. Repayments: You must repay us the Loan Amount, pay us interest charges, and any other amounts payable to us under this Loan Agreement.
- 9. Repayment provisions:
 - a. You must make each repayment under this Loan Agreement:
 - i. in the amount and in the frequency set out in the Details, unless we agree otherwise; and
 - ii. in cleared funds and in full, without any set-off, deduction, counterclaim or withholding, except as may be required by law (and we will not treat any repayment as made to the Loan Account until it is cleared).
 - b. Unless otherwise agreed, repayments must be made by direct debit from the Nominated Account by no later than the day they are due.
 - c. You authorise us to establish a direct debit against the Nominated Account on the terms set out in the Direct Debit Authority in relation to any amount payable by you to us under this Loan Agreement. We will have the right to adjust debits to your Loan Account for the purposes of correcting any errors to any amount debited from your Nominated Account.
 - d. You must not cancel any Direct Debit Authorisation you give us or close the Nominated Account unless you first notify us of another direct debit authorisation acceptable to us.
 - e. You must ensure there is enough money in the Nominated Account to meet each debit.
 - f. We may assign any date we consider appropriate to a debit or a credit to the Loan Account. However, for a debit that date will not be earlier than the date on which the debit occurs. We will credit payments to the Loan Account as soon as practicable after we actually receive them. This is not necessarily the same day that you pay.

- g. We may subsequently adjust debits and credits to Balance Owing on your Loan Account so as to accurately reflect the legal obligations of you and us (for example, because of an error or because a debit to your Nominated Account is reversed). If we do this, we may make consequential changes (including to interest charges). Unless otherwise specifically provided, we may use any repayment we receive (or any part of it) in connection with this Loan Agreement to reduce the Balance Outstanding on your Loan Account in any order we choose.

10. Other costs and charges

- a. You must pay us all Fees and Charges in the circumstances set out in the Details and any new fee or charge notified to you.
- b. You must pay us an amount equal to any government charges and duties on receipts and withdrawals under this Loan Agreement, (if any) calculated in accordance with the relevant legislation.
- c. When we ask, you must pay us any reasonable enforcement expenses we reasonably incur in enforcing this Loan Agreement.
- d. Words or expressions used in this clause 10(d) that are defined in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (GST Act) have the same meaning given to them in that Act. If we are liable to pay goods and services tax (GST) or any similar tax on a supply (as defined on the GST Act) made in connection with this Loan Agreement, you must pay us an additional amount equal to the consideration payable for the supply multiplied by the prevailing GST rate. This clause does not merge on completion and will continue to apply after expiration or termination of this Loan Agreement.
- e. You authorise us to debit any of these amounts to your Loan Account.

11. Early repayment option: You can:

- a. repay the Total Amount Owing at any time before it is due. We will, on request, provide you with written confirmation of a payout figure for this purpose. There is no fee or charge for paying the Total Amount Owing before it is due;
- b. repay any portion of the Balance Owing on your Loan Account before it is due. If you repay only part of the Loan Amount early, your repayment amount does not change (but it may mean that you repay the Loan Amount more quickly). You must continue to make the repayments in the amounts and at the times set out in the Details, until the Total Amount Owing is paid.

12. Collection and enforcement

- a. In carrying out collections services we will:
 - i. monitor all repayment obligations under this Loan Agreement;
 - ii. take appropriate steps to contact you for repayment arrears; and
 - iii. take appropriate recovery action if there is a repayment default including recovery from you of our reasonable enforcement expenses.

 - v. have provided us with incorrect, misleading or fraudulent information (including in connection with your Loan Application).
- b. If you are in Default, we will send you a Notice of Default requesting that you correct the Default.
- c. If you do not, or cannot, correct the Default within the grace period given in the Notice of Default or required by law (or if you are in Default again for a similar reason at the end of that period), then, at the end of that period and without further notice to you, the Total Amount Owing becomes immediately due for payment (to the extent that it is not already due for payment).
- d. If a scheduled repayment or any other amount due under this Loan Agreement is dishonoured on the due date, including because you do not have sufficient funds in your Nominated Account, you must pay us a dishonour fee of $15.00 each time the payment is unable to be processed. The dishonour fee is payable immediately. We will give you notice before debiting the dishonour fee to your Loan Account
- e. If the National Credit Code applies to this Loan Agreement, we must give you written notice in accordance with the National Credit Code before we take any enforcement action in relation to this Loan Agreement.

14. No Agency

No agent or representative who promotes our services is authorised to act as our agent to agree or negotiate or change any term of this Loan Agreement or to make any warranties or representations about it, oral or otherwise.
